KEVIN CENTOFANTI NAMED PRESIDENT OF BROOKS, HOUGHTON & COMPANY, INC.

New York, NY – Brooks, Houghton & Company, Inc. is pleased to announce that Kevin Centofanti has been named President of Brooks, Houghton & Company, Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, “BHC”).

“I am honored and grateful that BHC’s shareholders have placed their confidence in me to lead our firm into the future. Gerald Houghton and Steven Brooks were instrumental in building a highly successful merchant banking business, and I look forward to leading our great firm with the same levels of passion and commitment exuded by our co-founders,” stated Mr. Centofanti.

Mr. Centofanti was previously Senior Managing Director of BHC and led its investment banking division. He recently celebrated his fourteenth anniversary at the firm.

BHC is a merchant banking firm located in New York that focuses on mergers and acquisitions advisory, debt and equity capital raising and corporate finance matters, in addition to principal investing through dedicated investment funds. The firm’s broker-dealer, Brooks, Houghton Securities, is a FINRA and SIPC member.
